Curriculum Enhancement Projects

Gender Studies Integration Project: Year-long, cross-disciplinary discussions of women's studies issues in academia; revised my parenting course from a feminist perspective.

Minority Undergraduate/Ronald E. McNair Research Program: Served as a mentor for underrepresented students in STEM who are interested in pursuing graduate school.

Multicultural Curriculum Enhancement Project: A year-long immersion in multicultural issues in higher education; revised two courses from a multicultural perspective. Trainer for multicultural curriculum infusion.

The Department of Human Development & Family Studies was recognized in 1992 for Outstanding Service for Diversity at CSU, due in large part to involvement in the above three projects. I wrote the award application.

Faculty Institute for Inclusive Excellence. Co-leader of university-wide curriculum infusion project focusing on diversity, 2014-16.
