Early Childhood Education Major
Jointly sponsored by the Center for Educator Preparation and the Department of Human Development and Family Studies (HDFS)

Program Quick Facts:
• The Early Childhood Education Major is preparation for teaching ages birth-8 years old (Infants-3rd grade).
• Once students are accepted into the ECE major, they will have a degree advisor in the Department of Human Development and Family Studies as well as a licensure advisor in the Center for Educator Preparation.
• The admission process into the program takes place once a year in the spring with the admitted candidates starting the program the following fall.
• The Early Childhood Education Major uses a “cohort” model.
• All coursework within the Center for Educator Preparation requires a 4 semester (or 2 year) consecutive commitment to complete.
• Education courses are not offered in the summer or online due to the connected field experiences with local school districts. HDFS and All University Core Curriculum courses are typically offered in the summer and online.
• Coursework includes experiences at the Infant through 3rd grade levels.
• Graduates of the program teach in Infant, Toddler, Pre-K, and K-3 placements. (However, it is not an elementary licensure program.)
• Upon completion of the requirements, you will receive:
  o A Bachelor of Science degree in Early Childhood Education.
  o Institutional Recommendation for teacher licensure from CSU’s Center for Educator Preparation.
  o Early Childhood Director Qualification courses will be completed as part of the major; certification is done through the Colorado Division of Childcare.
• An information session is held each November for interested students. HDFS students should watch for emails sent to their CSU email address for the date, time, and location.
• Prospective ECE students are required to meet with an HDFS advisor to discuss their eligibility and application before advising.

Applications are available by the middle of November every Fall. Applications are due the first Friday in February every year. For more detailed information, visit this website: http://www.cep.chhs.colostate.edu/students/teacher/admissions.aspx

* Please Note: No late applications will be considered.

Commonly Asked Questions:

Q: Should I be taking education courses before I am in the ECE program to prepare?
A: EDUC 275 is an excellent course to take early. Once accepted into the ECE major, students take all of the other required education courses with their cohort.

Q: What classes should I concentrate on taking to be ready and qualified to apply to the ECE major in my sophomore year?
A: These courses are recommended: As a freshman: HDFS 101 and HDFS 217 and HDFS 277. As a sophomore: EDUC 275 and HDFS 310 and HDFS 318.

Q: If I have transfer credits from another institution, do I need to have official transcripts from each transfer institution for my ECE application?
A: Yes. Official transcripts from each transfer institution are required with your ECE application.

Q: If I complete the ECE Major here at CSU, then choose to go teach in another state, will my license be accepted?
A: The license from the ECE Major is usually accepted in other states, however depending on where you go to work, you may have to take additional-supplemental courses. You can check each state’s department of education website for more information.
